

1. Meg was busy talking to her friends on IM.

2. Then, someone she didn't know started chatting to her.

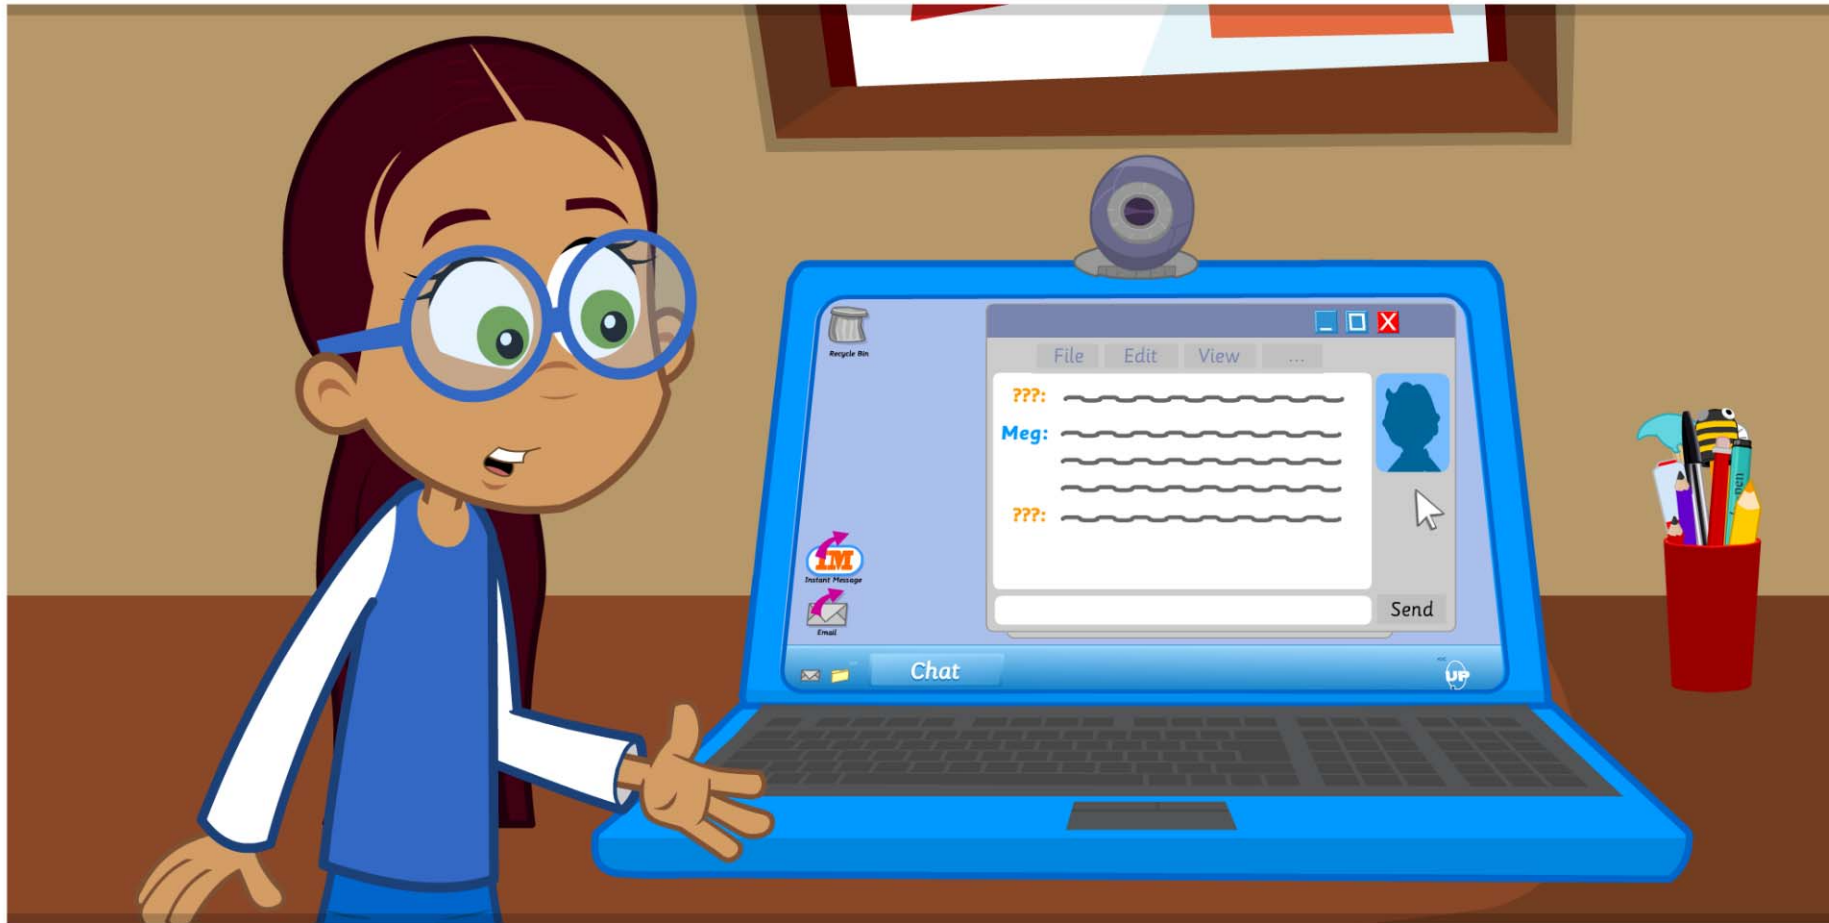

3. But then this person asked Meg for a photo of herself so they can see what she looks like.

4. Meg is not sure what she should do! What do you think she should do?

You should NEVER upload a picture of yourself to someone you do not know. If someone is making you feel uncomfortable, you should always tell an adult you can trust.

Can you think of some top tips on how to stay safe online?