

The children are filling a treasure chest with all the things they are good at.

What would you put in the treasure chest?

Talk to a partner. Find out what they are good at.

Can you tell at least five other children in your class, something they are good at?